Last weekend was the 21st already Edition of the tournament, held in Essen. From Friday to Sunday from 4 teams fighting for the coveted Damhus Nations Cup. It won the national team of the Netherlands, who defeated the English team of Staring Frogs in the finals 3-2.

With beautiful weather all weekend, the event was well attended and the audience saw a balanced studded tournament, in which there were many close results. Entscheidnugen Many fell after extra time and penalty shootout.

Coach Michalowicz, this weekend more as a player on the road, met for the second.

First identified in 2 support acts, the participants in the quarterfinals. While the 1 Crew of the Rockets in a very strong group of heavily-tat, which surprised the 2nd Team Rocket-positive with a 1st Place after the preliminary round.

Unfortunately, the Rockets were the sports I do not quite meet expectations. Both teams lost their quarterfinal matches, with just under 2:1. Here I drew Rockets against the German junior national team and the worst of the Bundesliga side defeated third division Rockets II Dusseldorf Rams.

Better contrast, the second team the Rockets. With further victories against the West Coast Wasps and Kingston Street Flyers (both England) gave it to the end to rank 5th Rockets I still frustrated by the early retirement, also lost the next game against Kingston Street Flyers (England) with 3:4 after penalty shootout and ended up in the end only to place 7th

Into the national finals of the Netherlands came with a 2-1 victory over the German junior national team. In the other semi-final sat through the Staring Frogs with 3-1 win against Dusseldorf Rams. In the finale the audience first saw a tour of the "frogs" before the safe routine of the Holland national team prevailed.

The tournament was complemented by the summer festival of the Rockets, who visited nearly 800 people in the three days. On Saturday evening they celebrated with the other teams missed the Players party at the Roller Skating Arena. Our Chairman Thomas Böttcher honored before fans and even members of the junior team, which in
